

Fig. 8.1. Phylogram (from Kahn et al. 1999) shows that the 21 mitochondrial DNA haplotypes are separated into two deep monophyletic clades. Bootstrap values greater than 50% are shown along the branches of the tree. Haplotypes from clade I and clade II are found in all greater sage-grouse populations sampled.

